Fire First Air to Air A-Rocket Over Desert

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (P)—The first air to air atomic rocket fired from a plane burst over the desert today with a flash that paled the morning sun.

The Air Defense Command's newest and most powerful weapon exploded at 7 a. m.

The vivid fireball flared in the target area at an altitude of more than 15,000 feet and sent up a pink-doughnut-shaped cloud.

The nuclear rocket was launched from a Northrop F89 Scorpion jet fighter.

As the rocket's cloud rose in stately fashion into clear blue sky, the vapor trail of an airplane, probably the launcher, cut sharply away to the north.

The cloud assumed somewhat the shape of the usual atomic mushroom, but the crown quickly sep-

To Grant Lie Detector Test To Sheppard

Counsel Says He's Ready to Submit To the Testing

COLUMBUS, Ohio (P)—Gov. C. William O'Neill said today he was willing to grant a lie detector test to Dr. Samuel Sheppard.

Counsel for Dr. Samuel Sheppard, serving a life term for the bluegone-slaying of his wife, Marilyn, said Sheppard is willing to take a lie test.

Lt. Gov. Paul M. Herbert, who participated in Sheppard's futile appeal to the Supreme Court, reported his former Cleveland osteopath's decision after an hour long conference in the Ohio Penitentiary.

The conference followed a confession by Donald Wedler in Florida that he clubbed a Cleveland woman about the same time that Marilyn Sheppard was murdered in her Bay Village home near Cleveland the morning of July 4, 1954.

Upon leaving the penitentiary, Herbert said:

"I gave to the warden Sam's consent to submit to the (lie) test if the warden and the governor will permit it. Sam is willing and always has been.

"The request will be made by the Sheppard family that Sam be given a lie detector test by a competent technician."

Alex Gregory, a lie detector expert for the Court of Last Resort examined Wedler in Deland, Fla., where he is held in jail as a fugitive.

Erle Stanley Gardner, mystery writer who founded the Court of Last Resort to prove innocent those who may have been wrongfully convicted, telegraphed Ohio Gov. C. William O'Neill that tests showed Wedler had told the truth about his Ohio episode.

Gardner asserted that Ohio should cooperate in a lie-detector test for Sheppard.

All new students, including all eighth graders, should plan to attend the Orientation Day program which will be Friday, Aug. 30, at 2 p. m.

A record Thursday night crowd of between 1400 and 1500 people attended the Tipton Tri-County Fair which opened Wednesday.

The performance of the Tadpoles and the Tall Timber Boys, all of Ozark Jubilee fame, was well attended and 500 extra seats were filled.

According to A. H. Kline, one of the directors of the fair, a large number of entries have been received for the horse show which will be held Friday and Saturday nights. The Friday night events will be started by a kiddie pet parade.

The Floyd O. Kile Shows are appearing for the fourth consecutive year on the midway.

Texas Ranch Fire Nearly Under Control

SAN SABA, Tex. (P)—Firefighters contained a roaring brush fire in all but "two or three places" in the tinder dry ranchland southwest of here today.

The fire, which broke out Wednesday night, burned hundreds of acres and endangered livestock.

Mayor J. W. Shook of San Saba said the blaze was confined to the Yates ranch. He said the fire was out of control at "two or three places," but was being fought with 25 or 30 pieces of equipment.

Lands Rented Plane On Frenchman Flat, In Atomic Test Site

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (P)—A man landed a rented plane yesterday on Frenchman Flat within the atomic test site, one of the most potentially dangerous spots in the world.

Stewart Fleming, 26, dancer at a hotel here, said he got lost and was nearly out of fuel, so he landed—and found he was in the closed area.

Atomic Energy Commission officials said the rental service sent out a pilot, who flew the plane back here later yesterday.

New Moves For Cutbacks Shaping Up

Teller Vote Starts Showdown Session; Roll Call Necessary

WASHINGTON (P)—The House handed President Eisenhower a preliminary victory today by voting 172-154 to restore 300 million dollars to his foreign aid program. But new moves for cuts shaped up.

The teller vote on the 300-million-dollar item started a showdown session as House leaders sought to pass the multibillion-dollar aid authorization bill by nightfall.

The action, still subject to a later rollcall, overturned a tentative 106-100 House vote Wednesday to slash to 500 million dollars the economic aid fund Eisenhower wants to support defense programs of America's allies.

It restored the defense support fund to 800 million dollars, the amount voted by the Senate and just 100 millions shy of Eisenhower's original request. Eisenhower said Wednesday the 500-million figure is so low as to be "a threat to our nation's security and that of the free world."

But critics of the aid bill planned to try to cut back again on the defense support fund, and to chop other parts of the big overseas assistance program.

The House took up the bill where it left off Wednesday, having recessed yesterday without transacting any business because of the death of Rep. Bowler (D-Ill.).

At the start of the day, the bill carried $3,042,333,000 to aid other countries in the fiscal year which started July 1. This is $902,300,000 less than Eisenhower asked.

First on tap today was a leadership move to reverse the Wednesday action. The House voted 106-100 then for an amendment by Rep. Bentley (R-Mich.) to reduce to 500 million dollars the economic aid funds to support defense programs of allies.

Eisenhower had requested 900 million dollars. The Senate cut that figure to 800 millions, and a House committee had further reduced it to 700 millions before the bill got to the House floor.

Eisenhower said in a statement after the Bentley move succeeded that the cut to 500 millions "can be considered as no less than a threat to our nation's security and that of the free world." He asked for a return to at least the 800 million dollar figure approved in the Senate.

Representatives Carnahan (D-Mo.) and Vorys (R-Ohio), floor managers for the bill, were cautiously optimistic that the one day layover had supplied enough opportunity to round up votes to overturn Bentley's amendment. But they weren't sure they could get up to the 800 million dollars.

Carnahan noted that only 206 of the 433 present House members voted on the Bentley proposal.

Bentley in turn said he is "not at all optimistic" that his cut will stick.

Reports US Budget In Black

Surplus Is Recorded By Budget Bureau For the Fiscal Year

WASHINGTON (P)—A surplus of $1,645,000,000 was recorded by the federal government for the fiscal year which ended June 30.

The Treasury and the Budget Bureau reported the amount today.

The balance for fiscal 1957 was the second successive black-ink showing. A third balanced budget recommended by President Eisenhower now is pending before Congress.

The statement issued by Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and Director Percival Brundage of the Budget Bureau showed federal receipts of $70,989,000,000 and expenditures of $69,344,000,000 for the 12 months ending June 30.

Expenditures were 444 million dollars higher than were estimated in January when the fiscal year was half over, while receipts were 361 million dollars higher than the January estimate.

The public debt at the end of the bookkeeping year was $270,634,309,846, a reduction of $2,190,392,278 from the level a year earlier.

The statement said the increase in outlays was "mainly due to larger expenditures for the Department of Defense which were not fully offset by lower expenditures in other departments."

In fiscal 1955 the government had a deficit of $4,200,000,000. Buoyed by rapidly rising tax collections, receipts exceeded spending in the following year, fiscal 1956, by $1,600,000,000, or approximately the same size surplus as was reported for the year which ended June 30.

Miss US Isn't Miss; Ousted From Tourney

LONG BEACH, Calif. (P)—The tall, stunning Miss United States in the Miss Universe contest was ousted today for being married.

"We desperately needed money," she explained at a dramatic press conference.

The Maryland girl who gave her name as Miss Leona Gage but actually is the wife of an airman and mother of two added:

"We owe a lot of bills. My husband makes only $300 a month. We live in a rented house. We don't have our own furniture. . . . My two children are healthy, but they need clothes."

Leona, who swore to contest officials she was single, loses her title and thousands in prizes to beautiful Miss Utah, runnerup in the Miss USA finals last Wednesday night. However, Charlotte Sheffield, 20, of Salt Lake City, can't be among the 15 finalists in the Miss Universe contest tonight.

This is because she didn't compete against 32 foreign beauties in semifinals last night, and thus could not be compared with them in official judging. Miss Argentina, Monica Lama of Buenos Aires, 16th last night, will become the 15th finalist.

"I'm glad it's all over," said the ex-Miss USA with a deep sigh. "At least I was Miss United States for a day."

Leona, dressed in a plaid dress with flared skirt, looked as beautiful as ever as she stood clasping the hand of her successor, Miss Utah. Miss Gage was composed at the start of the press conference, but appeared at times on the verge of tears. Miss Utah cried a little.

Leona denied tearfully last night and again this morning that she was married—even in the face of reports from relatives and friends that she was.

Finally, this morning, she broke down and sobbed out the story to contest officials. Then she went into seclusion.

This is the first year contest rules have required that entrants be single.

Paris Train Derails; 11 Unidentified Dead

AVIGNON, France (P)—Eleven persons were killed and several score were injured early today when a speeding Riviera-to-Paris express train switched onto a side track and derailed.

The train, which originated across the Italian border at Ventimiglia, ordinarily carries a large number of foreign tourists to the French capital. But several hours after the accident railroad officials said they had no indication of the identity of the dead or injured passengers.

The Calvary Baptist Church will hold a formal dedication Sunday. This and other church news can be found on Page 5.

New Motion for Acquittal Again Overruled by Judge

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (P)—In a dramatic legal maneuver, Southern attorneys abruptly ended their case today in the trial of 11 segregationists who sought to keep Negro students out of Clinton High School last fall.

They then renewed motions for a judgment of acquittal.

U. S. Dist. Judge Robert L. Taylor then overruled the motions again today. Following summation arguments by both sides, the landmark civil rights case will go to the all-white jury.

Attorneys said after a huddle with Taylor that both sides will argue the case Monday and the judge will charge the jury on Tuesday. Robert L. Dobbs of Memphis is chief defense counsel, and U. S. Dist. Atty. John C. Crawford Jr. heads the prosecution.

Each side will be allowed four hours.

The court adjourned at 11:33 a. m., until Monday with Taylor giving the jury a final, solemn warning not to discuss the case, listen to radio or TV programs which might refer to the case or read newspapers.

The defense called only six witnesses, though nearly 90 had been subpoenaed.

The swift maneuver came after a conference of defense attorneys that lasted more than an hour.

The only defense witnesses today were Ted White, a Clinton fireman, and Guy M. Jones, foreman in a knitting mill at Clinton.

White's testimony was that the restraining order, prohibiting interference with integration of Clinton High School, was not fully read by U. S. Marshal Frank Quarles.

Jones testified that everything was quiet around the high school prior to Dec. 4. That was the day when the Rev. Paul Turner escorted six Negro students to the school and was beaten immediately afterward.

Crawford, however, brought out the fact that Jones began work every day at 7 a. m. Jones said he was on vacation Dec. 4, a Tuesday.

"But you weren't around the school during the week before, were you?" Crawford asked.

The witness agreed.

"So you don't actually know, yourself, what the situation was around the high school?"

Once Again Missouri Weather Is Stymied; No Heat Relief Yet

KANSAS CITY (P)—The weatherman sees nothing in the way of heat relief for Missourians.

There is a sluggish cool front to the west, but it is showing a tendency to veer off to the north-east and thus miss Missouri.

So, the weatherman says it will continue hot tonight and Saturday. There may be some widely scattered showers. Highs Saturday will range from 95 to 100.

Recover Bodies Of Men Involved In KC97 Crash

PLATTSBURGH, N.Y. (P)—Two bodies were recovered and three men were sought today in the wreckage of an Air Force refueling plane that plunged into Lake Champlain last night, setting a fire that was seen 15 miles away. Three other men escaped.

State police said the KC97 struck an underwater reef when it crashed three minutes after takeoff from Plattsburgh Air Force Base.

Two men parachuted to safety. A third was pulled from the lake.

The base said two of the four engines failed on takeoff. The crash occurred about a mile and a half off Port Kent, 15 miles south of Plattsburgh.

The two who parachuted landed near the base, about six miles south of the city. They were M. Sgt. Chester A. Kazminski, 32, flight engineer, Chicago, and S. Sgt. Eli S. Radanovich, 38, radio operator, South Bend, Ind.

M. Sgt. John F. Morgan, 34, flight engineer, Garfield, N. M., was pulled from the water by Charles Finley of Keeseville, who was in a boat on the lake.

Identities of the other men aboard were withheld.

Will Clarify Civil Rights By Amending

Senator Knowland Says Section 3 Needs Work Over

WASHINGTON (P)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) said today he plans to offer "further clarifying amendments" to the controversial Section 3 of the civil rights bill before the Senate recesses tonight.

He said "no specific language has been worked out as yet" but that he expected this to be done during the course of the day in consultation with Northern Democratic leaders.

The Senate Republican leader gave this word to reporters after a meeting of GOP senators which he said was given over to "general discussion" of the bill.

There were indications, however, that there had been some warm words in the closed-door session.

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.) left it in an obviously irritated mood, and told reporters: "Some of these people don't want a civil rights bill. They want a campaign issue for 1958 and 1960."

Aiken has joined with Sen. Russell (D-Ga.), leader of the Southern opposition, in an effort to amend the House-passed bill so it would be limited to assuring voting rights for Negroes and other minority groups.

"If they really want a civil rights bill they could get one in three days—by the middle of next week," Aiken said. "But some of them don't want a reasonable bill."

Aiken said some civil rights sponsors are "asking powers for the attorney general that even Franklin D. Roosevelt never even thought of asking."

"They are not satisfied with something that could be approved," he said. "They want to go into the whole field of human relations."

There is dissatisfaction among Democratic backers of the bill too, over what they contend is the lack of clear position by the administration.

Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) expressed this by saying President Eisenhower ought to make a clear cut statement on the bill.

"One of the first places we need to get some agreement is on where the White House stand," Humphrey told reporters.

He and some other backers of the bill have contended that Eisenhower's various news conference comments on the bill have left the President's position cloudy.

Humphrey said he and other Northern Democrats conferred last night with Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California but see "no definitive agreement" on any language to modify the most controversial part of the House-passed bill.

Hoffa Bribery Case Is Now In Jury Hands

WASHINGTON (P)—The James R. Hoffa conspiracy-bribery case went to the jury today.

U.S. Judge Burnita S. Matthews admonished the jury to reach a verdict "without sympathy or prejudice."

Judge Matthews instructed the jury for an hour and 25 minutes on points of law.

Submitting the case then to the jury of seven women and five men she said it should perform its duty "thoroughly and impartially."

Fifty minutes of the judge's instructions were taken up with detailed explanation of the first count of the indictment.

This alleges that Hoffa, Midwest boss of the Teamsters Union with headquarters at Detroit, and Hyman I. Fischbach of Miami, Fla., conspired to induce John C. Cheasty to get a job with the Senate Rackets Committee, then bribed him to feed them its secrets.

Beta Sigma Has Fine Project At Buena Vista

The Epsilon Beta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, has a project, a very unusual and simple project, that of trying to make a group of people happy. Quite a few organizations go out now and then and take things to the people at Buena Vista and maybe give programs, but this group of young women have selected just doing things to brighten the lives of the people there.

Last Friday night Epsilon Beta had an ice cream social and, like most ice cream socials, they had a few cakes and pies left. Usually when this happens, they simply sell the pies and cakes to whoever wants to buy them-but not these girls. They had something else in mind and were probably hoping that a few of those pies and cakes would be left. The next day two of them, Mrs. Bob Fingland and Mrs. Richard Flippin, took the pies and cakes and went out to Buena Vista to have a party. That was the best part of their ice cream social because the people at Buena Vista had such a good time.

At first the girls thought it was just a nice idea to take cakes out for birthdays of the month at the home but they didn't count on what was going to happen to them. They didn't realize how attached they were going to get to these people at Buena Vista and how much fun it was going to be for them.

Now they are planning something else. The next party they are going to have games with little prizes. They think their cakes each month are what the people there like, but if a vote was taken it would probably prove that the thing they like most is the visit from the sorority girls who are all young and gay and laughing.

Let There Be New Lighting

Some of these days soon Sedalians hope to see a change to modernity in the white way lighting of the downtown business district.

The old globe type standards have served their purpose and are ready to be consigned to oblivion. They should be replaced with more practical steel standards with overhanging fluorescent fixtures providing greatly increased illumination.

Also on Broadway which is destined to undergo widening by the Missouri State Highway department there is hopeful prospect the wooden poles when displaced will be succeeded by steel poles and perhaps fixtures for mercury vapor lighting.

These improvements, which may also include better residential lighting, have been under study by the city administration and the Missouri Public Service Company engineers.

The outlook is favorable that downtown the underground system of wiring will be retained rather than resorting to overhead wiring which Columbia recently made such a fuss about when their new lighting system was installed.

These improvements, of course, are predicated on the passing by city council of ordinances affecting the Public Service Company which were introduced last Monday night. The one relating to street lighting authorized the city to enter into a contract with the MPS to furnish such service for the next ten years after approval of a franchise election.

The company's franchise expires this year. Another ordinance has been introduced calling for a special election for the voters to pass upon this matter. Date for this election will be set by council at its August 8 meeting. The date probably will be in September or as early as legally possible since the franchise for lights, power and gas for the next 20 years is an important function needed to be acted upon without procrastination.

Another improvement which may be incorporated in the street lighting program relates to traffic signal controls. Presently the interconnected system is not considered practical. An adequate job of traffic control may be effected by putting controllers at each intersection.

Certainly one refinement of this program if finally agreed upon will be elimination of the temporary arrangement of a controller box in the alley next to Lockett's store in the 200 block on Ohio avenue and the unsightly appearance of wires connecting the traffic signal at Second street.

Prospects look good for brightening up Sedalia's business district. In the meantime we wish someone with some snippers attached to a long pole would cut off that rotten insulation from a wire over Fourth street at Lamine. It's been hanging, drooping and fluttering in the breezes for over a year now.

Northerners Split On Civil Rights

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — It probably isn't known to most of their Senate colleagues, but the Senate liberals are in a heck of a mess. After crusading for years for civil rights and being consistently defeated by the Dixiecrat-Republican coalition, they now find themselves divided among themselves and led by the Republican leader of that one-time Dixiecrat coalition.

How deep the disagreement is came out in a secret meeting of Democratic civil rights champions called by Sen. Paul Douglas of Illinois. Present were Senators Anderson of New Mexico, Carroll of Colorado, Murray of Montana, Green and Pastore of Rhode Island, Kennedy of Massachusetts, Symington of Missouri, Neuberger of Oregon, and McNamara of Michigan—all Democrats.

At the start of the meeting Neuberger observed the absence of another stalwart liberal, Wayne Morse of Oregon.

"I am sorry my colleague is not present," he remarked. "I would prefer to be fighting side by side with him. It is difficult for me to enter into any arrangements here with Wayne absent because, unfortunately, the newspapers in Oregon have been trying to give the impression that there is a split between us. Of course there is nothing of the kind."

"It is quite evident why Wayne is not here," replied Douglas, who was presiding. "He voted against Rule 14 the other day."

"In that case, I had better excuse myself," interposed Sen. Clinton Anderson of New Mexico, "because I did too. Before I do, however, let me give you some advice."

"There are five men sitting up in the front row of the Democratic side. I want to name them in the order of their seats. Kerr (Okla.), Frear (Del.), Anderson (N.Mex.), Magnuson (Wash.), Mansfield (Mont.). They all voted against Rule 14, and you're going to need their help. You haven't got it now."

Beginning of the Split

"Then," continued Anderson, "on the second row back from the end seat is this fellow Morse. And let me tip you off, you're going to regret the day that you sent this bill to the calendar without going through the Judiciary Committee, because you are going to have to admit in the end that Morse was right."

This referred to the battle which first split the liberal Democrats—namely when Morse of Oregon argued that the civil rights bill, passed in the House of Representatives, should not be put on the Senate calendar immediately, but should go to the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Other liberals argued that if sent to the Judiciary Committee, it would be blocked by Chairman Eastland of Mississippi for weeks, just as it has been blocked by him ever since January.

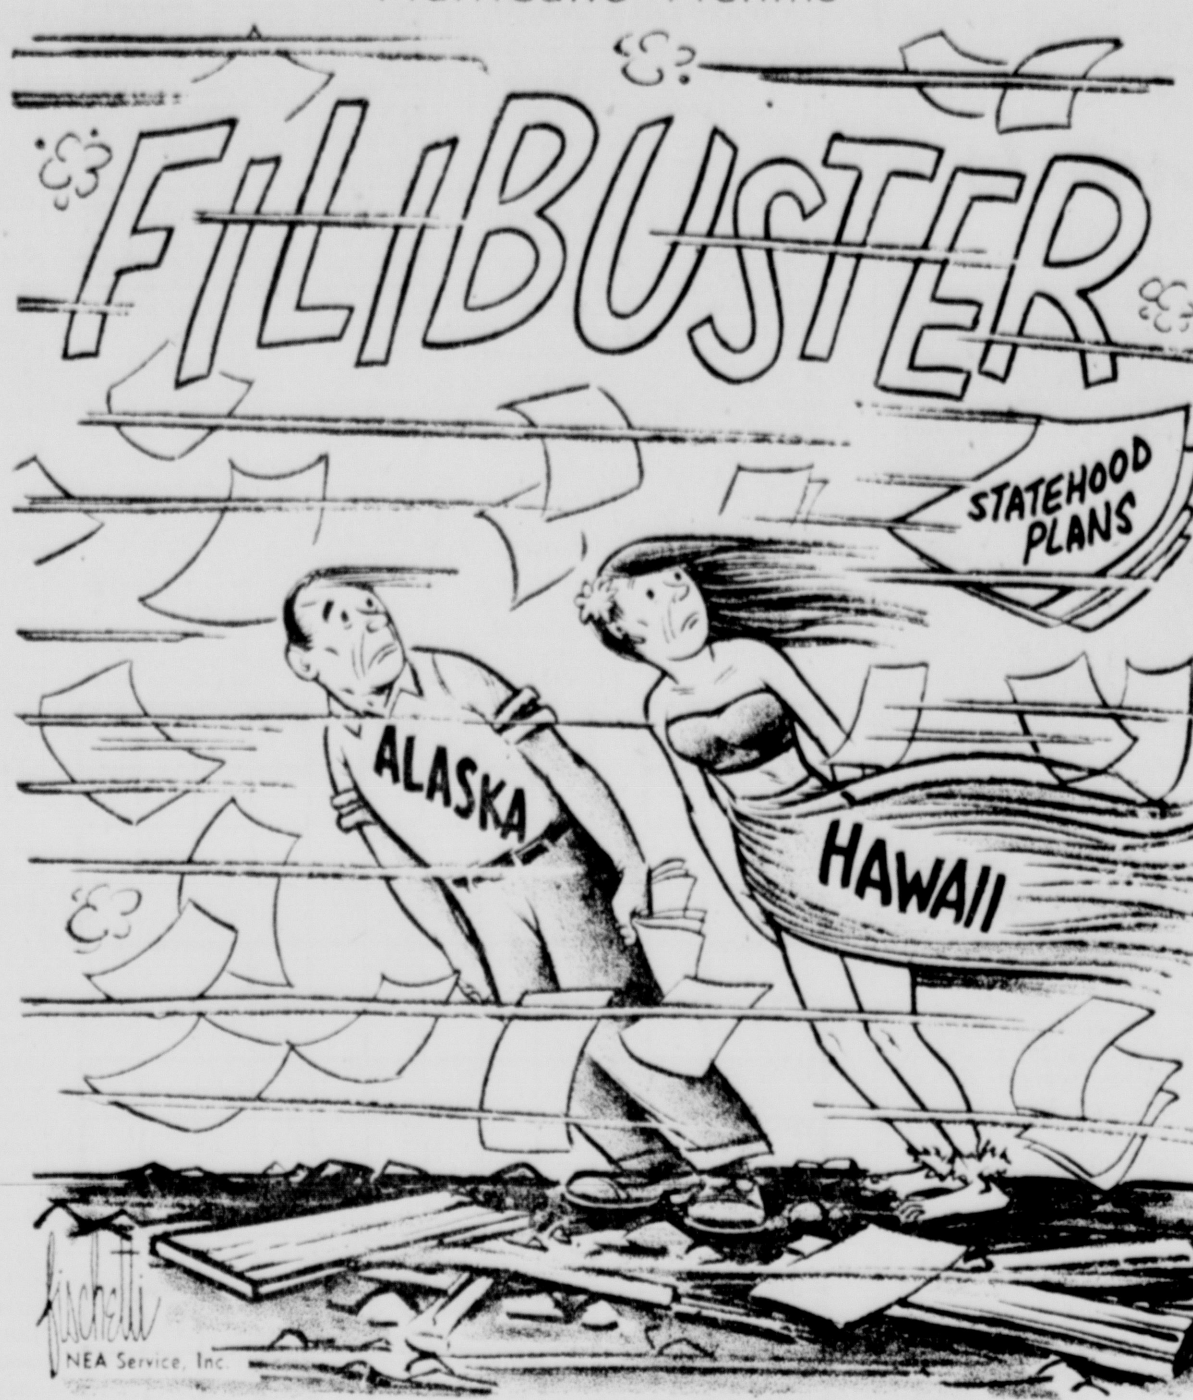

"I also want to make it very clear," continued Anderson, "that I have no intention of

Guest Editorial—

DAILY OKLAHOMAN: No Tornado Did It. If all the motorists that died on our Oklahoma highways at the late Fourth of July weekend holiday had been killed by a single tornado, thousands of citizens would be spending the current week digging storm caves. Such a tornado would have produced a statewide outburst of horror.

Since the present year began all the tornadoes that have touched Oklahoma have not claimed a much greater number of victims than was claimed by highway accidents at our latest holiday period. But tens of thousands of citizens have been semi-cave dwellers ever since the first tornado of the year was detected. Unquestionably the people of Oklahoma are tornado conscious. But when 20 times as many victims fall in our ceaseless traffic carnage, the majority of the people are hardly conscious of the enormity of the tragedy that has befallen. People shudder at the thought of 12 people perishing in a tornado's fury, but they are nearly indifferent to the hundreds who have died on the highways since the current year began.

Benefit Is Question On Civil Rights

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON — There is an almost topsy-turvy air about the Senate fight over the civil rights bill which President Eisenhower's administration backed.

And like offstage music one question hovers over all that's being done: who gets what out of this—Negroes, the Republicans, the Democrats?

The administration put the heat on House Republicans last June to pass this bill intact, as the administration wanted it. They got behind it in big numbers.

The Republicans are conscious of the growing importance of Negro votes in the North. With passage of this bill, they could expect a show of political gratitude from Northern Negroes in the next elections.

And if the bill, as passed, had any real teeth in it and enabled more Southern Negroes to vote, the Republicans could expect benefits there, too.

The degree of Negro gratitude, however, may be in direct relation to (1) whether the bill passes and (2) whether it has teeth.

No matter what happens the Republicans can claim that Eisenhower and Sen. Knowland of California, Republican Senate leader, led the fight for it.

But when the House-passed bill got over to the Senate, and Southern Democrats began their real fight against it, Knowland felt pressure to weaken it. Together with Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.), he proposed a softening amendment. And Knowland has further changes in mind, although the House went down the line to pass almost exactly the kind of bill the administration asked.

But there is a complicated situation in the Senate.

There the Republicans can hardly be called all Eisenhower Republicans. But because of the circumstances—a bill backed by Eisenhower and Knowland—those who follow Eisenhower will back some kind of bill, and so will those who like Knowland.

The Democrats, North and South, have their own problem: with Southerners against it and some, if not all, Northerners for it, the Democrats have the task of preserving some kind of party unity.

Behind the scenes Sen. Lyndon

Johnson of Texas, Senate leader of the Democrats, is working to produce a compromise which Northern and Southern Democrats, and perhaps Republicans, can accept.

Johnson, whose Democrats have a majority in the Senate, is in the strange position of watching Knowland, leader of the Republican minority, put up the fight for civil rights which the Democrats had always promised.

And if the Southerners want no part of compromise, even for party unity, they face the possibility of defeat by a coalition of Republicans and Northern Democrats.

They want the whole bill killed. But this time they may figure it a victory if they can wind up with a bill that is much toned down from the kind Eisenhower requested. A weak bill would be better from their viewpoint than a tough one.

Northern Democrats who help get some kind of civil rights bill can claim some credit among Northern Negroes for their part in it.

Yet, because of the Southern opposition, Democrats as a party can hardly claim much when it was the Republicans who led the fight.

Even a watered-down bill would be a victory for the Negroes—not as much as they hoped for, but still a victory. It would be the first time in this century that a civil rights bill passed the Senate.

Hitherto, Southern Democrats have always been able to block it.

Even a weakened civil rights bill, if it helped more Negroes vote, would be an encouragement to them next year to put pressure on Republicans and Northern Democrats to pass a stiffer one, once the Southern wall had been broken.

Hard of Hearing Find Boon In Improved Aids

Hearing is certainly one of our most important senses. It is unfortunate, therefore, that the ability to hear well is lost to some degree by so many people.

There are numerous causes for hearing loss, some of which could be prevented. The degree and location of the lessened ability also varies. Consequently, the treatment is not always alike.

Many readers are familiar with one type of progressive hearing loss known as otosclerosis. Sometimes this variety can be helped by surgery.

But perhaps the greatest advance in help for the hard of hearing has come from the development of improved hearing aids. These are infinitely better than the old ear trumpet which grandma used. It is astonishing that more people with hearing difficulty do not avail themselves of these devices.

Occasionally the failure to use a hearing aid when it is needed may be because the one who needs it does not realize his or her slight deafness.

Hearing is often better some days than others. A person who is slightly deaf may be able to hear voices well in a relatively quiet room, but hardly able to hear anything when there is noise in the background. Hearing for such things as symphonic music may be retained after ordinary social conversation has become difficult.

Many excellent instruments are on the market. There are several varieties and models to choose from. They are lighter than they used to be and use less current. Some can be used in both ears.

In choosing a hearing aid, it is important to pick one which is, or can be, adjusted to the peculiar defects in hearing of the person who wears it. The adjustment requires some knowledge of the degree of hearing loss and of its particular qualities.

Hundreds of thousands are profiting by using hearing aids today and more would do so if they conquered their unreasonable dislike of these instruments.

Facing Real Facts

US-Canadian Leaders Can Iron Out Differences

By Esther Van Wagoner Tufty
Of Our Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — Will the National Planning Association, despite the best of its intentions to "increase Canadian-American good will," end up as "a grievance committee for Canadians disgruntled over unbalanced trade, too great investments of American capital in basic Canadian industry, U. S. wheat surplus dumping, and just the very human resentment of being taken for granted like a faithful wife?"

Not if the "Three Wise Men" who head this non-profit, non-governmental three year old association committee have their way about it. The Canadian businessman (Robert Fowler), the American businessman and former Ambassador to Canada (R. Douglas Stuart), and the Danish-born NPA Chairman (H. Christian Sonne) told a small press-luncheon that Canadian-American differences (which seem to be on the increase) will best be resolved by 40 or so American and Canadian leaders sitting down together "facing the real facts" and reaching a conclusion. That conclusion will be publicized "to mould public opinion" and only indirectly channeled through the two respective governments. Behind all the fine talk about "the unique friendly relationship across our northern border" is the fear, that unless positive action is taken to prevent little irritations from becoming big, that beautiful friendships might deteriorate.

One brave reporter dared to say "all the gripes seem to come from Canada, what does the United States want which it is not getting?"

Admitting that Canada with its 16 million people is more conscious of the United States with its 170 million population, "it should not be forgotten that Canada is the United States' best customer and best ally," said Mr. Fowler, President of Canadian Pulp and Paper Association.

One "gripe" the United States may have is a "fair system of tolls on the St. Lawrence Seaway." If successful, the three hope that the committee will set a pattern to benefit other countries with common borders and common interests.

The committee which will meet twice a year is privately financed by business, individuals and foundations in both countries.

Disarmament Hopes Were Built on Flimsy Pretense

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Hopes for an arms limitation agreement with the Russians have not been given a not-unexpected setback at the five-power U.N. Disarmament subcommittee conference in London.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin did not reject the entire American plan outright. He merely rejected the basic American proposal on which the whole U.S. plan is built.

This plan has been presented by the American delegate, Harold Stassen, from June 20 through July 5. Its key is the proposal to ban nuclear weapon testing for 10 months in exchange for an agreement to stop production of all atomic and hydrogen weapons at the end of that period.

Zorin rejected not only the American test ban. He also turned down a proposal made by Foreign Minister Selwyn Lloyd on behalf of the governments of the United Kingdom, Canada, France and the United States. This was to set up immediately a technical committee to design a foolproof system of inspection to check against nuclear weapons testing.

This was a typical Russian reversal of form. In the past, the Russian position has always been that controls and inspection were unnecessary. Then, on June 15, Zorin indicated that to move toward agreement the Russians would accept inspection posts in the Soviet Union, the United States, Britain and Pacific areas to guard against nuclear weapons testing.

Zorin did not reply at this time to questions about whether the Russians would also agree to stop nuclear weapons production. But it was taken as an important concession that the Russians had at last accepted inspection — a key U.S. point.

This was supported somewhat by Zorin's April 30 presentation to the London conference, in which he outlined a Russian disarmament plan. This accepted in principle the necessity for safeguarding against surprise attack. Now he has apparently rejected this whole concept.

It is considered possible that Zorin's latest position in turning down the key American plan provision is merely a tactical move to enable him to re-present the Russian plan. The purpose in this case would be to make his plan the basis for future negotiations, instead of the U.S. plan.

The Russian plan was first presented Nov. 17. It called for an immediate halt of nuclear weapon tests, destruction of nuclear weapon stockpiles within two years, a ban on their use thereafter.

At the same time the Russian proposed a reduction in U.S., U.S.S.R. and Red Chinese armed forces to 2½ million men within one year and to 1½ million men within two years.

Reduction of forces within NATO and Warsaw Pact countries was proposed. Military expenditures were to be cut proportionately.

Here for the first time the Russians accepted President Eisenhower's proposal for "open skies" inspection. They proposed it for an area 480 miles east and west of the Iron Curtain.

On April 30, the Russians amended this provision to provide as areas of inspection Alaska and the western U.S. in exchange for eastern Siberia, western Europe in exchange for the satellite countries and a thin slice of western Russia.

This was a lopsided offer in the Communists' favor. But it is typical of the gimmicks put in most of their efforts.

Yet this was hailed in some quarters as a major concession by the Russians. First they had abandoned their previous demand that the U.S. give up its foreign bases, second because they had moved the center line for European inspection zones a little farther to the east.

One flimsy pretense of this kind, hopes have been built up that it would be possible to do disarmament business with the Russians. Zorin has now dashed most such hopes to the ground.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Diffenbacher, D. D.
Many books have been written about writing.

Millions of people are concerned about communications. Vast multitudes want to "get ideas across" to other people. Words tell stories, create pictures, give directions, determine attitudes and change people in many ways.

Every word is important. In fact, each part of a word is something. Words have multiple meanings and different sounds.

Even the sounds help to paint pictures and to create attitudes. Would that we might all be able to express ourselves clearly; would that our writings could lift people to higher levels of thought.

Each of us can study to communicate ideas which will be worth while. On our words hang the futures of people's lives. Let us remember that "the Word became God" because words express the thinking of the mind and soul alike.

Construction on the new Calvary Baptist Church Educational Building at 16th and Quincy has been completed. The Dedication Program is scheduled for this Sunday, July 21, at 2:30 p.m. The Rev. H. L. Alley will officiate.

The service will open with an organ prelude, followed by a song service, scripture reading by the Rev. Kenneth Davidson, pastor of the East Sedalia Baptist Church, Ladies' Quartet selection. Following Mayor Julian H. Bagby will give words of greeting, after which guests will be recognized by Rev. Charles Tucker of the Missionary Harmony Baptist Association. Next R. W. Towner will read Church History and then a selection by a male quartet. Following the people will join in responses. Mrs. Charles Young will sing "Bless This House", a dedicatory offering, and then address by Dr. H. H. McGinty, benediction, and Postlude.

The Calvary Baptist Church of Sedalia was organized March 31, 1926, with 51 charter members. At its first service some 150 were present. The church planned when they organized to locate on the Southwest side of Sedalia but didn't feel sufficiently strong to build a new church at that time; so a large house on Montauk and Broadway was purchased where church worship continued until Aug. 9, 1953.

A lot on 16th and Quincy was purchased in 1952 and work was begun on a new church auditorium.

On Dec. 20, 1953, a beautiful new church building was dedicated. Dr. T. W. Medaris preaching the dedicatory sermon.

Since the church's organization more than 500 members have been baptized and added to the church. Some ten young people have surrendered their lives for Christian service. Among them was Rev. Earl Swafford, who was licensed and ordained to preach the gospel by the church, and is now pastor of the First Baptist Church of Ottumwa.

Dr. T. W. Medaris, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Ottumwa, will be the guest speaker.

Lake Creek's Camp Meeting Starts July 28

The 113th session of the Lake Creek Camp Meeting will be held July 28 to Aug. 4. The Methodist churches participating are Smithton, Florence, Stover, Cole Camp, Epworth, Ottumwa and Georgetown. The Rev. Arnold Prater, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Lebanon, Mo., will be the guest speaker.

Arnold Prater was born in Evanston, Ill., where his father, the Rev. J. D. Prater, at present district superintendent of the Rolla District, was going to college. One of four children, he was educated in the public schools of Marshallfield, Neosho, Excelsior Springs and Versailles, where he was graduated in 1935.

He attended George Washington University in Washington, D.C., and Northwest Missouri State Teacher's College, where he graduated with a B.S. in education in 1940. Following his graduation from college, he served as a high school teacher and football coach in LaPorte, Tex., and Centralia, Mo.

The war years found Rev. Prater serving the country as radio operator-gunner on a B-17 with the Eighth Air Force in England. It was during the war that he felt called to the ministry because of a vital religious experience, so he entered the ministry in 1948, serving at Centralia, Cedar and Belton before coming to his present pastorate in Lebanon last June.

He is the author of several articles which appeared in "School and Community," the state teacher's magazine, and "Shepherds," national Methodist magazine of evangelism.

Assisting in this camp meeting services will be our district superintendent, Dr. Robert M. Lehen, the pastors of the participating churches and other ministers of the Sedalia District. Anyone wishing to attend, may take Highway W at Smithton, and go south until you come to the Lake Creek marker and turn east one-half mile.

Dr. Robert M. Lehen, district superintendent, will be the guest speaker Sunday morning at 11 o'clock worship service at Ward's Memorial Baptist Church. Dr. Pak received his Ph.D. in psychology at the University of Missouri. The public is invited to hear him speak.

Hammond will use for his subject, "Christianity: A Study in Unorthodox Orthodoxy." Miss Sandra Mahnkun will sing "I Believe" as arranged by Ade.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet at 4 o'clock for a picnic. The Intermediate Youth Fellowship will meet Thursday evening at the church at 7 o'clock.

"When God Is Silent" Is Federated Subject

The subject of the sermon Sunday morning at the Federated Church will be "When God Is Silent." Miss Opal Frances Carson will sing a solo.

Hammond will use for his subject, "Christianity: A Study in Unorthodox Orthodoxy." Miss Sandra Mahnkun will sing "I Believe" as arranged by Ade.

Dr. Pugh Starts His Ministry This Sunday

On Sunday July 21, Dr. B. A. Pugh, the interim pastor for the First Baptist Church, will begin his ministry. Dr. Pugh was the former pastor of the First Baptist Church of Joplin, and since his retirement has served several churches in this state as an interim pastor.

The week's calendar will include the following activities:

Sunday, 5:45 p.m., Training Union executive meeting.

Monday, 7:15 p.m., Think-nics will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Collins, 1625 West 18th. The group discussion on the Bible will be led by the Rev. Charles Tucker.

Monday, 7:30 p.m., Boy Scouts. Tuesday, 8 p.m., W.M.U. Association Meeting at LaMonte, Mo. The Youth Auxiliary will be featured at this quarterly meeting and each of the W.M.U. groups plus the Royal Ambassadors should be well represented.

Wednesday, 10 a.m., Lavelle Seats R.A.'s. Thursday, 2:15 p.m., W.M.U. program meeting.

All those planning to attend either the Harmony Association Royal Ambassador-G.A.'s Camp at Rocky Mount, Aug. 5-9, or the Central Missouri Layman's Retreat, Aug. 9-10, should get their reservations in as soon as possible.

Dr. Pugh was born in Joplin, Mo., and was educated in the public schools of Marshallfield, Neosho, Excelsior Springs and Versailles, where he was graduated in 1935.

He attended George Washington University in Washington, D.C., and Northwest Missouri State Teacher's College, where he graduated with a B.S. in education in 1940. Following his graduation from college, he served as a high school teacher and football coach in LaPorte, Tex., and Centralia, Mo.

The war years found Rev. Prater serving the country as radio operator-gunner on a B-17 with the Eighth Air Force in England. It was during the war that he felt called to the ministry because of a vital religious experience, so he entered the ministry in 1948, serving at Centralia, Cedar and Belton before coming to his present pastorate in Lebanon last June.

He is the author of several articles which appeared in "School and Community," the state teacher's magazine, and "Shepherds," national Methodist magazine of evangelism.

Assisting in this camp meeting services will be our district superintendent, Dr. Robert M. Lehen, the pastors of the participating churches and other ministers of the Sedalia District. Anyone wishing to attend, may take Highway W at Smithton, and go south until you come to the Lake Creek marker and turn east one-half mile.

Chiefs Win Game 9 to 5 Over Tipton

The Sedalia Chiefs, after being stalled by a fighting Boonville club, continued their climb to the top of the pack by dropping Tipton 9 to 5 at Liberty Park Thursday night.

Starting their assault in the first inning, the Chiefs jumped to a six run lead. Dale Miller started things rolling by a single on the first pitch. Miller was forced by Newman and Mines took a base on balls. Harvey got a single and both Mines and Harvey advanced a base on the throw to home plate. Don Barbour then lined a single which scored both runners. Neal and Kubli walked and Swafford got a single along with another single by Miller.

Miller was put out trying to go to second on a throw to home plate for the third out.

The Chiefs continued their scoring spree with two more runs in the second. But Tipton fought back with five runs in the fourth. Kubli retired the next sixteen men in a row.

Sedalia scored their final run in the seventh when Don Barbour hit a triple to the left-center field wall. Barbour ran home when the ball bounced away from the relay man.

Tipton had defeated Boonville 4 to 2 on Tuesday night to tie the Cadillacs for first place. The Chiefs will journey to Marshall Friday night for their fourth second-half contest. All players are asked to meet at Ralph Hamlin's by six o'clock.

To Quarter Finals In Junior Tourney

WASHINGTON (AP)—Larry Beck and John Konsek, a pair of par-shing youngsters, face new challenges today as they battle for quarter-final slots in the U. S. Golf Assn. Junior Championships.

Konsek, 17, of Lancaster, N. Y., was matched against steady Gordon Baker of Florence, S. C., at Manor Country Club in nearby Maryland this morning. Beck, 17-year-old son of a Kingston, N. C., pro, was lined up with Bob Walter of Hutchinson, Kan.

Konsek disposed of Atlanta's Don Patterson, 3 and 2, in a third round bout.

Beck whipped Jack Nicklaus of Columbus, Ohio, 4 and 3.

Baker stuck right to regulation scores through the 31 holes required to eliminate second and third round opponents yesterday.

The original field of 128 narrows to four after two 18-hole rounds today. Semi-finals and the championship match are set for tomorrow afternoon.

Settle Tie of Bids With Toss of Coin

LEAVENWORTH, Kan. (AP)—Official of the Leavenworth National Bank opened bids on a conversion project to find that George Collins and Julius Kaaz had submitted identical bids of $9,950.

Collins and Kaaz are friends. Furthermore, both are customers of the bank and both are fellow Rotarians with Bank President Frank Carroll.

The contractors settled the issue by tossing a coin for the job. Collins won.

HOW TED SLEICHTER LOST A HOLE—A ball sunk in the soft No. 17 green at Dayton, Ohio, is examined by Ted Sleichter, pro for President Eisenhower at Gettysburg, Pa. He reported this, lost the hole and, since he halved No. 18, was eliminated from the PGA tournament by Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla. (AP Wirephoto)

Field Narrows to 16

Snead, Ford Are Favorites In 39th PGA Championship

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Sammy Snead and Doug Ford continued to rule as red-hot favorites as 16 oddly assorted survivors surged today into the 39th National PGA championship's fourth round of match play.

Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., and Athens, Ohio, was the big road block in 45-year-old Snead's path today, the 27-year-old youngster hasn't been out of the money in 56 straight tournaments and has $21,447 to show for his 1957 club-swining.

Ford, 34, and the year's big money man with $37,946, tangles with the elder half of goldfom's star brother act, 34-year-old Jay Hebert of Sanford, Fla.

His 29-year-old brother, trumpet-playing Lionel, also is still around and has Mike Souchak the former Duke footballer, as his foe.

In the same bracket are 41-year-old Claude Yvon, former Masters champion, who tangles with fiery Tommy Bolt of Los Angeles and Henry Ransom, the 46-year-old former welterweight boxer and Texas ranch owner, who meets 38-year-old Walter Burkemo of Franklin, Mich., three times a PGA finalist in the last six years.

Ted Kroll of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., 37-year-old winner of the world championship last year, meets National Open champion Dick Mayer in the Snead-Finsterwald bracket, but the other four are horses of a darker hue.

Milton Marusic, 42, Webster Groves, Mo., who followed the tournament trail for three years without a victory, and Donald A. Whit, 26, of Alameda, Calif., foes in one fourth-round match. Marusic ousted defending champion Jackie Bruke by 2 and 1 yesterday.

The other pair are 51-year-old Charles Sheppard of West Newton, Mass., and Warren Smith Jr., 41-year-old pro at the Oak Hill Club in San Antonio.

Ousted in yesterday's matches were such luminaries as Jack Fleck, the 1955 National Open champion from Rochester, Minn., beaten 1 down by Eldon Briggs of Lansing, who then failed to win a hole as Bolt smothered him 7 and 6; Gene Littler, beaten one by Bolt, and veteran Denny Shute, winner in 1936 and 1937, and last to repeat for the PGA title.

50,000 Boy Scouts Homeward Bound After 4th Jamboree

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. (AP)—Some 50,000 Boy Scouts were homeward bound today from their week-long fourth national jamboree at historic Valley Forge Park.

But for some 1,700 picked scouts and leaders representing every state and U.S. possession, there was still another adventure ahead.

This is the jubilee contingent—the group which leaves now for Sutton Park near Birmingham, England, for the international jamboree.

They leave in two groups, the largest from Ottawa on the S.S. Fairsea on Monday and a spill-over of 186 who have today aboard the S.S. Castel Felice from New York.

Mullins, Brown's Win Babe Ruth Games

In the first game of Wednesday evening's Babe Ruth schedule, Mullins trounced McCowns to the tune of 18-2. Leroy Cole went all the way on the mound for Mullins, allowing just two hits and two runs. Both of the hits were obtained by Wadeigh, catcher for McCowns. Scott was on the mound for McCowns and allowed the hard hitting Mullins team 13 hits. These were by Dow and Kelley who had three each, Werts with two and Wallace, Gibbs, Powers, Cole and Mulcahey who each got one hit.

In the second game of the evening Browns won over Phillips 66-10-3 as Jack Benner hurled his fifth victory of the year. He held the Phillips team to seven hits, Jones getting two, one of these an inside the park home run. Farries, Case, Holman, Bennett and Stout also each got one hit. J. R. Walker started on the mound and was relieved by Bryan. However, Bryan was wild and had to turn it back to Walker who finished the game. Hitters for Browns were Arnett and Fisher who each got two, and Shepherd, Snow, Johnson and Street with one each.

On Monday night at 6 p.m. Western Auto meets Browns and in the 8 p.m. game Andersons plays Phillips 66.

Ebbetts Field Jinx Stuns The Cardinals

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Ebbetts Field whammy lives on.

The St. Louis Cardinals thought they had buried it with a seven-run ninth inning yesterday at Brooklyn which gave them a 9-4 lead.

Only three outs away was a victory which would have given the Red Birds a 2-1 series victory and five of their last six at their one-time graveyard.

Then it happened. Reliefers Hoyt Wilhelm filled the bases on two walks and a hit. Lefty Vinegar Bend Mizell came in to face lefthanded swinging Duke Snider. Mizell retired Snider on a roller, a run scoring, but was permitted to stay on against righthanded slugger Gil Hodges.

Hodges, hitless in four trips, blasted a grand slam homer tying the score. Snider doubled and scored on Eddie Kasko's error to win for the Dodgers in the 11th. The 10-9 defeat dropped the Cardinals out of the National League lead into second place.

At Kansas City, veteran Ted Williams, back on top in the American League batting race with a .367 mark, tripled home the winning run as the Boston Red Sox beat the A's 3-1 behind Tom Brewer's five-hit pitching.

Boston picked up an unearned run in the first off Tom Gorman as a crowd of 6,596 watched in 100-degree weather. Williams tripled home the second run in the third inning and in the home half, Billy Martin homered for the only Kansas City run of the game.

Gorman took his third defeat in five decisions. He allowed six hits. The Red Sox nicked Tom Morgan for an unearned run in the ninth.

Calhoun Hopes For Victory Over Frenchman

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Rory Calhoun, a sturdy middleweight who has had trouble with two guys named Joe—Giardello and Giambra—hopes to get back on the win path tonight in a 10-round match with Germaine Ballarin, the Frenchman with the flowing mustache.

Calhoun, ranked fourth among the challengers to Ray Robinson's title in the latest National Boxing Association rankings, had won 23 straight before he lost to Spider Webb in Chicago last August. He reeled off four more before losing to Giardello on a split decision, May 17 at Cleveland. In his last fight he was held to a draw by Giambra, June 21 at Syracuse.

As a result of his five 27-1 record for 30 pro fights, the White Plains, N.Y. boxer is a 13 to 5 favorite over the Frenchman who still is learning the American style of fighting. In his only U.S. start, Ballarin won a unanimous decision over back-pedaling Bob Provizi of Freehold, Pa., July 1 at St. Nicholas Arena in New York. Ballarin beat Kid Gavilan, the former welter champion, in Paris in March 1956 and lost a decision to highly ranked Charles Humez in March just before shoving off for New York. His record is 43-6-5.

Network (NBC) radio and television will carry the bout, starting at 9 p.m. (est.) at War Memorial Auditorium.

No Moonshiners For ABC Agent

NEW BERN, N.C. (AP)—A State Alcoholic Beverage Control Board agent, Albert Russell of New Bern, was poking around a swampy area near Cherry Point looking for moonshiners.

He saw a trail which looked as if it had been made by a boat. He cautiously guided his own motorboat into the swamp grass.

It wasn't moonshiners. It was alligators—a mother and her young ones.

Russell retreated.

Scramble Continues

National League Top Teams Roll Over and Play Dead

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

If you've got the idea the National League contenders have rolled over and played dead once they made the top, you're right. Nobody loses like the leaders these days.

Since the scramble really got tight early in June, the lead has changed hands no less than 10 times, with Milwaukee's Braves moving back in with a one-game edge last night on a 4-2 victory at Philadelphia after Brooklyn socked St. Louis out of first with a 10-9, 11-inning stunner.

All five of the contenders—Milwaukee, St. Louis, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Cincinnati—have been in the lead since June 8, and in that time, they've played at a combined .400 rate while in first place.

Only the Braves have played over .500 while on top, winning seven of 13 games for a .538 percentage. The Cards were 7-9 while in first for .438. Cincinnati won only two of eight for .250. Brooklyn (.0-1) and Philadelphia (.0-2) didn't win once while in the lead.

Cincinnati's Redlegs, who have managed to stay within two games of the top although losing eight of their last 12, remained a close fifth with a 2-1 decision over the New York Giants yesterday. Pittsburgh defeated the Chicago Cubs 6-5 with four in the ninth.

The American League took on a look of complete collapse. The New York Yankees as the world champions opened up a five-game lead, their largest bulge of the season, with a comeback, 3-2 victory at Detroit while Baltimore scored five in the ninth to beat the second place Chicago White Sox 6-2. Boston defeated Kansas City 3-1 and Washington blanked Cleveland 4-0.

The Braves, who have won six of nine since the All-Star break to take the lead for a fourth time, were without slugging Hank Aaron for the windup of the three-game sweep at Philadelphia. But Del Rice drove in three runs, two with a homer off loser Curt Simmons, to take up the slack as Aaron rested an injured ankle and joined Joe Adcock, Del Crandall, Felix Mantilla and Bill Bruton on the injury list.

Bob Buhl, who had lost four in a row, beat the Phils a third time for a 10-6 season record. He needed Don McMahon's relief in the ninth.

Second basemen Red Schoendienst, who started three of four Milwaukee doubleplays, played the last two innings in center field in the make-shift Braves lineup—the first time he's played the outfield since 1947 with St. Louis.

The Dodgers, winning six of seven, moved past the Phils into third, 1 1/2 games behind, left the Cards all shook up with an unearned run in the 11th. The Brooks rallied for five runs in the ninth—capped by Gil Hodges' 12th grand slam homer for a share of the NL record with Rogers Hornsby and Ralph Kiner—to rub out a 9-2 deficit after the Cards had put together a seven-run comeback in the top of the ninth.

Gus Bell rapped a two-run homer and added two singles for the Redlegs as Johnny Klippstein won his fourth win with relief from Raul Sanchez in the ninth after Bobby Thomson's leadoff homer junked a shutout. Stu Miller was the loser.

The Yankees scored all three in the eighth—after being held to two hits for seven innings by Billy Hoelt, The Tiger lefty, now 2-5, was tagged for Jerry Coleman's one-out single, a walk and Yorl Berra's single for the first run. Then Hank Bauer poked a two-run double. Al Cicotte won in relief to get out of a two-on, none-out jam in the eighth.

Baltimore had managed just three hits off Jack Harshman until the ninth, when the Orioles counted three unearned runs among their five. Billy Goodman's pinch single scored two to win it for reliever George Zuverink.

The Red Sox picked up a pair of unearned runs at Kansas City and Ted Williams banged a triple for a 2-0 lead in the third off loser Tom Gorman. Tom Brewer won his 11th, giving up a Billy Martin homer in the third.

Camilo Pascual, who has pitched both of Washington's shutouts this season, no-hit the Indians for six innings and wound up with a three-single job for 7-10 record.

The double left Musial shifty of Paul Waner's runnerup total in the National League. Honus Wagner tops the NL in two-baggers.

CASPER, Wyo. — Lyle Svoboda got suspicious when he spotted two men in a car watching his service station.
He quietly telephoned police, and soon a squad of officers armed with riot guns drove up.
They surrounded the car, whose driver identified himself as a Minister, Ill., police judge waiting to use a telephone booth nearby.

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — Sacramento firemen thought they had found an unquenchable fire. At 4:30 p.m. yesterday they were called to Cap's Coffee Shop. They doused a grease fire.

Firemen had just returned to their base when a third call came from Cap's.
It turned out there was a leaking grease drain," explained owner Lois Thompson.

DENVER — City Councilmen who are concerned about poor acoustics in their meeting room received this advice:

Bomb Hoax
Delays Plane
Bound for Paris

BOSTON (AP)—A bomb hoax

caused a New York to Paris Air France Constellation to turn back last night and land here with 59 passengers.

A woman telephoned the airline's reservation office at New York's Idlewild Airport shortly after the big plane had taken off.
She said a bomb was aboard the craft.

Word was flashed to the ship to land at Boston. The passengers were hustled off and FBI men, state police and customs officers searched the plane. Baggage was checked by fluoroscope but no bomb was found.

The plane resumes its flight this morning.

Two other Air France planes made emergency landings for examination of cargo and baggage.
One, bound from New York to Mexico City, landed at Montgomery, Ala. The other also out of Idlewild, landed at Sydney, N.D.

Earlier in the day, two Air National Guard fliers were killed at Worcester, Mass., when their jet plane crashed and exploded in the middle of a residential area. Six dwellings caught afire, but none of the residents were injured.

Miss United States Denies
Being Married

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—A
Miss United States who hysterically denied that she is married is among 15 international beauties vying today for the 1958 Miss Universe crown.

Twice last night Miss Maryland
—21-year-old Leona Gage—burst into tears when newsmen questioned her about her marital status.

The tall, slender Miss U.S.A. winner emphatically denied rumors reaching the pageant from Baltimore that she was married.

The reports caused a backstage uproar unparalleled in the history of the contest. Newsmen, photographers and television cameramen closed in on the dark-haired Glen Burnie girl the moment last night's pageant—the selection of 15 semifinalists—drew to a close.

Left posed and waiting were the other fourteen finalists, Misses Alaska, Austria, Brazil, Canada,
Cuba, England, Germany, Greece,
Italy, Japan, Morocco, Peru,
Sweden, and Uruguay. They stole glances as newsmen grilled Miss Gage.</

Have Ceremonies Tuesday

Karen Marcum Installed As Senior Regent, Women Moose

Karen Marcum was installed as senior regent of the Sedalia Chapter No. 1242, Women of the Moose, at the Moose Home on Tuesday evening, June 25, with Mabel Cramer as installing chairman.

Taking part in the beautiful and impressive ritual were: Past Governor Lloyd Deuschle, installing regent; Rose Robb, installing chaplain; Marie Robb, installing guide; and Patricia Starkey, installing pianist.

The elected and appointed officers who will assist Mrs. Marcum during the year are: Junior graduate regent, Gertrude Samuels; junior regent, Sara Gentges; chaplain, Julia Riley; treasurer, Gertrude Head; recorder, Ann Patterson; guide, Delpha Johnson; sentinel, Alice McMellen; Argus, Iva Ellison; pianist, Hortense McMullen.

The following chairmen were also appointed: Mooseheart, Flo

Wells; hospital, Gladys Satterwhite; library, Louella Bradbury; ritual, Mabel Cramer; Moosehaven Margaret Rodgers; Moose Alumni, Ruth Lindsey; membership, Patricia Starkey; publicity, Rose Robb; child care, Marie Robb; home-making, Ruth Crow; social service, Elzora Rodgers; Academy of Friendship, Agne Taylor.

Gertrude Samuels, retiring regent, was presented a dozen red roses and a gift from the auxiliary in appreciation for her efforts toward the advancement of the Chapter during the past year. Mrs. Samuels responded with a short talk, thanking her co-workers for the cooperation they had shown her and expressing the hope of an even better year for her successor.

As a token of confidence and with best wishes from the chapter, Mrs. Marcum also received a bouquet of roses. In her acceptance of the office of senior regent, the new regent expressed her desire to work for the Achievement Award for the Chapter, and to carry out all the projects necessary to accomplish it. Mrs. Marcum thanked the auxiliary for the confidence and good will shown her in honoring her with the senior regent title.

Refreshments of punch and cookies were served to the large group of friends and relatives present. The table was covered with a lace cloth and the centerpiece was an arrangement of blue flowers in milk glass with light blue tapers. Patricia Starkey presided at the punch bowl which was also milk glass.

Moose Women Have Special Guest Speaker

Past Governor Cecil Curtis was guest speaker on the Chapter Night program of the Women of the Moose on Tuesday night, July 9.

Mrs. Karen Marcum, chairman of the executive committee chapter program presented the speaker, whose talk explained many of the least understood phases of the Moose activities.

The lodge and the club, while both a part of Moose organization, are entirely separate and individually operated, lodge through its officers and the club through its steward, although supervised by the elected officers of the lodge. The speaker stressed the many privileges and advantages of belonging to the fraternity and noted the great accomplishments achieved in such a short space of time. The more than a million members are justly proud of Mooseheart and Moosehaven, the two monuments of security provided and supported by the more than 1900 lodges throughout the United States, Canada and Alaska.

Curtis cited the example of what membership in the Loyal Order of the Moose can mean to a family by calling attention to an article in the July issue of the Moose Magazine. Nine children and their mother, Mrs. Doris Upton of El Cajon, Calif., are now settled in their new home at Mooseheart, because the husband and father had joined the Moose only a short time before his death from a heart attack. His contribution to the fraternity was around $30 and it is estimated that by the time the nine-month-old child, youngest of the group, has grown and been educated, the Loyal Order of the Moose will have given $132,000 for the education and support of this family. This is only one of many similar cases where a small investment reaps a secure future for "our brother's children", said Curtis, and he urged the Women of the Moose to stress these facts.

A number of activities to be discussed and a calendar of events will be presented in the near future.

Mrs. Marcum, senior regent, presided during the business meeting.

New emblems to be worn by the 12 committee chairmen are ordered and will be used for the first time during this year.

Refreshments were served during the business meeting.

AIR CONDITIONING now!

By making use of the fan, the filters, and the ducts of your existing heating system, you can get year-round air conditioning at a minimum cost. The Conversion Weathermaker will thoroughly cool and dehumidify the air before it is circulated throughout the house and a special thermostat will enable you to select the summer temperature you wish and then maintain it no matter how hot is gets outside. No complicated seasonal changeover is required—you just flick a switch on the side of the thermostat from heating to cooling.

To add a Conversion Weathermaker to a counter-flow furnace in a utility room, just raise the furnace twelve inches and fit the cooling coil underneath.

Many modern furnaces are extremely compact and fit in small closets. The cooling coil section of the Weathermaker easily fits on top of such furnaces.

When the furnace is located up in the attic, the cooling coil section of a Conversion Weathermaker fits readily in the main supply air duct to the house.

If basement ceilings are too low to permit putting the cooling coil section on top the furnace, this unit for horizontal air flow can fit in the supply air duct.

For the low boy type furnace, whether in a utility room or basement, conversion is easily made. The cooling coil section mounts over the supply air outlet.

Acquittal Plea Turned Down

Action Follows Dismissal Of Charges Against Four

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 18—(P)—U. S. Dist. Judge Robert L. Taylor today rejected an emotion-charged plea for a directed verdict of acquittal based on a defense contention that if the Clinton segregation trial went to the jury it would become a "cause celebre."

U. S. Dist. Atty. John C. Crawford Jr. argued that the evidence shows the remaining 10 Clinton defendants met again and again with New Jersey-born segregation leader John Kasper, 27, and conspired with him to violate a federal anti-violence injunction.

Highway Plan Is Projected For Fiscal '58

Schedule Will Cost Over $125 Million; Began on July 1

Missouri state highway construction, improvements or right of way acquisitions estimated to cost some $125,295,427 are included in a four-phase tentative working schedule which now has been approved by the State Highway Commission for the 1958 fiscal year, which began July 1. Tentative schedules for the Interstate, Urban and Supplemental phases were approved at the July Commission meeting while the Primary system phase was approved in June.

The Interstate System working schedule sets up projects estimated to cost some $63,004,000 and covering 171.2 miles of such highways. Of the money allotted, $31,872,000 would go for right of way purposes, $29,745,000 for construction and $1,387,000 for preliminary engineering.

The Urban schedule sets up projects estimated to cost $11,138,450 and extending over about 25.8 miles of such routes. The breakdown here estimates $5,899,600 will go for right of ways, $4,979,000 for construction and $249,850 for engineering.

The supplementary phase schedule provides projects estimated to cost $24,633,977. A total of 1,635.7 miles of roads which are to be approved are listed, with at least one road being in every county in the state.

The primary system phase, which was approved earlier, listed work estimated to cost $26,527,000 on some 371.3 miles of such highways.

It is pointed out in connection with the urban phase schedule that projects therein would be mostly obligated during the 1958 fiscal year even though the federal funds will come from the 1959 apportionment. All currently allotted funds for urban work already are obligated, either by contracts let, by right of way commitments or by current bid calls. Funds for the new projects are expected to be allotted by the Bureau of Public Roads early this fall, reimbursable after July 1, 1958, which would permit contracts on the work to be let during the last six months of this year.

Also, it is necessary to set the urban phase up at this time in order that surveys can be made, plans completed and the necessary right of ways acquired. Several projects are scheduled on which it will be necessary for individual cities to furnish funds for right of ways and in some bond issues may be necessary. In such cases it is planned to defer preliminary work until there is definite assurance the local funds will be available.

Each of the four phases of the tentative working schedule includes more projects than can be financed with the funds available. This was done purposely in order that the Commission could have alternate projects ready for bid calls in the event other projects are delayed for some reason.

Jet Trainer Plane Crashes Among Homes; Two Fliers Are Killed

WORCESTER, Mass., July 18—(P)—A jet trainer plane, spinning out of control, crashed and exploded on a quiet tree-lined residential street today, scattering wreckage which set six houses afire and killed the two fliers aboard.

Although several persons were on the street and housewives were busy in their homes, no civilians were injured.

Two of the houses were badly damaged despite the efforts of occupants to control the flames until fire fighters arrived.

The plane was attached to the 133rd Air National Guard at Grenier Air Force Base, Manchester, N. H. It was one of a flight of three on a training mission.

AFTER RECORD FLIGHT—Accompanied by members of his family, Navy Maj. John Glenn, Jr., waves a greeting as he walks from his Navy Crusader jet plane at Floyd Bennett field in Brooklyn, N. Y., after completing a transcontinental flight in record-breaking time. The plane set a new speed mark by flying coast-to-coast in three hours, 23 minutes and about eight seconds, breaking the old record by more than 21 minutes. With Maj. Glenn are his wife, Ann; daughter, Lynn, 10, and son, David, 11. (NEA Telephoto)

Organizations Begin Work For the Sidewalk Bazaar

With the Sidewalk Bazaar a little more than a week away everybody has started action immediately and of the cards sent out by the Chamber of Commerce to merchants asking about their participation there are already 19 merchants replied that they would be selling their wares on the street in front of their stores on July 29 and 30. Others, who have businesses where they have nothing they can sell on the street, are replying, too, and making the fronts or sides of their businesses available.

The civic clubs and church organizations are also getting into the act and listing at the Chamber of Commerce.

Then there will be ice cream bars and such other items at the booth, too.

Issues Appeal To Counties For Tax Cuts

JEFFERSON CITY (P)—The Missouri Public Expenditures Survey today issued its annual appeal to the counties to cut taxes wherever possible.

The plea was based on a study by the Survey, a taxpayers' organization, which showed that 34 of the 108 rural counties had surpluses last January equal to or greater than the amount of revenue they expected to collect in 1957.

Many other counties had surpluses greater than they needed to operate on a cash basis, the Survey said.

This is the 14th year the survey has reported on county budgets, during the period the number of counties with excessive surpluses has been reduced but still amounts to almost one out of three.

Its study indicated the property holders in Missouri pay an average of 41.9 per cent taxes on each $100 assessed valuation. That is a tenth of a cent less than the average for 1956.

The study did not cover St. Louis City or the six first and second class counties—Jackson, St. Louis, Buchanan, Jasper, Greene and Clay.

Club members plan to sell soft drinks.

Several other organizations are listed with the Chamber of Commerce but have not yet decided what they will sell.

The Sidewalk Bazaar is being sponsored by the retail merchants division of the Chamber of Commerce, of which Harry Naugel is director.

Katy Officials Claim Earnings Can Retire Stock

WASHINGTON, July 18—(P)—Top officials of the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad said today prospective earnings of the company will be sufficient to meet all requirements of Katy's plan for retiring its outstanding 7 per cent preferred stock "with an ample margin for taking care of needed property improvements."

"I believe the Katy railroad has substantial earning power," President William D. Derramus III testified at an Interstate Commerce Commission hearing.

"It is located in an area that is growing rapidly, both as to industrial development and population increase. A seven-year drought has been broken this spring, which has greatly encouraged the producers of agricultural and livestock products for the future. Naturally this will eventually stimulate all business."

The company proposes to call in the 667,000 shares of preferred on which a dividend arrearage of more than 106 million dollars has been accumulated. This would be done by exchanging for each share $100 principal amount of 5½ per cent income debentures dated Jan. 1, 1957 and maturing in 75 years, our certificate constituting a $100 claim on future income, and one share of Katy common. The plan has the support of some large-block preferred stockholders and is opposed by some small-block holders.

Escaping Fumes Force Evacuation of Town

RED BUD, Ill., July 18—(P)—Escaping ammonia fumes forced evacuation of about three-fourths of the 2,000 residents of this town today and turned vegetation dark in the affected area.

Mayor Elmer Schuchmann had the town's fire alarm sounded for 10 minutes after he was notified of the leaking gas shortly after 5 a. m.

About twenty-five persons became ill but none required hospital treatment.

"Everybody was calm," the mayor said. "There were no accidents."

Some 1,500 persons left the town, in cars, trucks and on foot.

Labor Officer Vows to Back Union Cleanup

His Promise Comes After Considerable Hinting by Senators

WASHINGTON, July 18—(P)—The secretary-treasurer of the United Textile Workers, accused of using union funds to finance a swank home, promised Senate rackets probes today to back a clean-up campaign in the union.

Lloyd Klenert, UTW secretary-treasurer since 1944, testified he would work for elimination of the practice of lending union funds to union officers, employees and staff members on any terms. He said he expects the matter of reforms to come up soon at a meeting of the UTW Executive Board.

The promise followed considerable prodding by members of the special Senate committee looking into alleged labor-management abuses. But in the end it came out in clear-cut fashion from the poised, ever-polite Klenert—after Sen. Ives (R-NY) told him: "You haven't any business doing what you have been doing and you know it."

The promise also followed testimony of committee investigator Alphonse Calabrese that $57,000 of union dues applied to the purchase of homes for Klenert and UTW president Anthony Valente was put down in union books as "organizing expenses." The homes are in a Washington suburb. Klenert's cost $52,500 and Valente's cost $42,500.

Klenert wasn't asked whether the $57,000 represented misuse of union funds, whether it was a union loan, or whether he actually got part of it. He did say he borrowed $1,000 from the union to clinch the deal on his house.

The committee will question again tomorrow, and possibly Valente.

Today, the committee bore down on the idea of trying to get Klenert to push for a financial housecleaning in the union.

Klenert said it has been a practice for years for officials to obtain interest-free, unsecured loans from the union, and that this had been authorized by the executive board.

Britain Says Chances For Treaty Improved

Parliament Is Submitted 'White Paper'

It Cautions That Many Obstacles Still Remain Ahead

LONDON, July 18—(P)—Britain declared in an official statement today the prospects for a partial disarmament treaty have "materially improved" in the past four months.

"It is true to say that substantial advances have been made in the present discussions," the government said in a report to Parliament on the work of the United Nations Disarmament subcommittee.

The White Paper pointed out, however, that many obstacles still must be overcome before any kind of a disarmament treaty can be signed.

"There is still a considerable divergence between Western and Soviet views on what a partial agreement should contain," it declared.

The White Paper represented an official summing up, for the benefit of Parliament, of what has been going on in the 51 private meetings of the five-nation Disarmament subcommittee since the present session opened March 18.

Its publication followed repeated demands by the Labor party for more information, and was expected to form the basis of an early debate on the government's disarmament policies. Labor spokesmen frequently have criticized the government's stand on disarmament matters. Particularly, they have protested its refusal to agree to an early and unconditional suspension of hydrogen bomb tests.

The issue of halting nuclear tests was one of several items which the White Paper spelled out in the present state of agreement—and disagreement—between Russia and the four other members of the U.N. subcommittee, Britain, France, Canada and the United States.

It said there is agreement on the principle that tests should be halted, just as there is agreement in principle on reducing conventional armies and armaments, military budgets and zones of aerial and ground inspection. But the paper noted these deep differences of opinion on how the test suspension should be carried out.

"The Soviet Union advocates the suspension of nuclear tests. . . . as an immediate measure independent of a partial disarmament agreement. The Western Powers consider that cessation of tests, by itself, would not stop the nuclear arms race, as those countries now producing weapons would be free to continue their manufacture indefinitely."

Springfield Is Given Aid For Sewage Plant

Must Justify Needs

Manual Is Concrete Evidence Of New 'Prove It' Budgeting

JEFFERSON CITY, July 18—(P)—The first concrete evidence of Missouri's new "prove it" form of budgeting was announced today—an 81-page manual showing the heads of institutions and departments how to make their budget requests and justify them.

The big difference from the past lies in a requirement that each division or agency head submit a written statement showing what requested money will be used for and how important that particular work is in continuing or starting state services.

The state comptroller and budget chief, Newton Atterbury, said his present nucleus of seven budget experts will help wherever needed in making out budget requests.

Then when the requests are received from each state official—they must be in by law before October—each man will be given an opportunity to explain and justify it in a hearing.

It will mean, Atterbury said, that the budget staff, the governor and the Legislature will all get the same requests and the same justification for them, a far cry from the past when some officials asked for a big amount hoping that in the process they'd wind up with at least what they needed and maybe a little more.

Atterbury said his staff drafted the manual in as simple terms as possible, drawing upon similar manuals from other states for a composite pattern. He said he was sure changes would have to be made as experience points out the flaws in this first effort.

"But it can't be any worse than in the past and should be a lot better."

By the second budgeted appropriation year we should have something the state can be proud of," he said.

Atterbury commended his budget staff. He said each man seemed intensely interested in producing the finest budgeting operation possible.

The 1957 Legislature agreed with Gov. James T. Blair that the old system was not businesslike and produced some bad, unbalanced appropriations.

State Republican Leader, Barak Mattingly, Dies

ST. LOUIS, July 18—(P)—Barak T. Mattingly, Missouri Republican leader and one of the state's most controversial political figures, died today after he was stricken by a heart attack. The St. Louis lawyer was 56.

The seizure came at his home, and the former Republican national committeeman died four hours later at De Paul Hospital here.

He was reportedly in good health and returned to St. Louis Tuesday from a business trip in the East.

Although never a candidate for public office, Mattingly was a factional leader in an acrid intra-party feud that divided the party's ranks in the state the past several years.

He was a close political adviser of the Eisenhower administration and was a member of the so-called "Commodore Hotel" group which helped induce Dwight D. Eisenhower to run for the presidency in 1952.

Earlier Mattingly had supported Thomas E. Dewey in 1944 and 1948 and played a leading role in bringing Missouri votes over to him at those two GOP national conventions.

Mattingly was chairman of the Republican State Committee in 1937-39 and was national committeeman from 1940 to 1948. He was counsel for the GOP National Committee in 1948-49.

Active in business, Mattingly was board chairman of the Ozark Airlines and the Bank of Ferguson, Mo., and a director of several other firms.

John G. Moore, vice president of the Mallinckrodt Chemical Works, said the strike was caused by a wage dispute in negotiations for a new contract.

Started Few Months Ago

Crippled Children's Center Moved; Much Work Involved

It takes a lot of busy hands and minds of healthy people in the community to provide facilities and training for the handicapped child, but once again Sedalians met the challenge this week.

It all started a few months ago when it was found necessary to move the Crippled Children's Center from the Bothwell Hospital to temporary headquarters in a residence at 638 East 14th Street, which is across the street from the hospital. Preliminary work towards getting ready for the new annex to the hospital was to be started as soon as the center was transferred to its new location.

In order to have no interruption in the daily activities of the Crippled Children's Center, the board of directors of the Bothwell Hospital purchased a residence near the hospital which could be used by the center until it could move back to its modern quarters in the hospital when the annex is completed.

The task had then just begun. It also involved moving many items of equipment used both in the educational training and the therapies for the handicapped children registered at the center.

Trucks and employees of the Sedalia Delivery Service under Glenn Lower, the Mid-State Storage and Transfer under Dan Doty, and Burkholder's directed by Bill Burkholder spent Monday and Tuesday in moving this equipment.

Performing one of its many worthwhile services to the community, various members of the local Lion's Club appeared at the center to help move and to place the furniture and equipment in their proper places. In their usual manner, the permanent staff and some volunteer helpers of the center, under the director, Mrs. Rudolph Swope, pitched in to help make the expedient transition. Some equipment was too cumbersome for the temporary quarters, so it was stored at the Mid-State Storage Company.

All of the many man-hours and moving equipment were donated by those helping to move the youngsters. Once again the Crippled Children's Center, one of the finest institutions of its type in Missouri, is in operation.

Medieval Style Duel Causes Brother Death

MAEBASHI, Japan — Police said brother killed brother last night in a medieval-style duel at Annaka near Maebashi.

Officers gave this account:

Kunio Koitabashi, 42, an innkeeper, fought with his unemployed brother, Kiyoshi, 32, each armed with an ancient six-foot spear.

Kiyoshi stabbed Kunio in the neck. The five-inch spearhead, mounted on a long shaft, pierced the jugular vein and Kunio bled to death.

Kiyoshi, who was jailed, told police the quarrel started when he returned home and found his brother berating their 66-year-old mother.

Officers quoted Kiyoshi as saying: "When I intervened, my brother grabbed a spear and challenged me. I also took a spear and fought. We were both drunk."

The spears were antique family treasures.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white lace fashioned with a wide midriff, marked by tiny satin cord. The sabrina neckline was finished in the scalloped rose design of the lace as were the short sleeves.

The bouffant skirt lengthened into a chapel length train. Her veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of pearls. She carried a bouquet of roses centered with an orchid.

Miss Pat McKnight of Wichita, Kan., was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Julia Jenkins, Wichita, and Miss Kathy Sanderson, Seagoville, Tex. Uncooked Blackberry Jam

With the abundance of blackberries this season why not try some uncooked jam.

4 cups blackberries

1 box dry pectin

1 cup water

5 1/2 cups sugar

Use three cups fully ripe and one cup slightly underripe berries. Put berries through a food grinder. Combine pectin and water in a saucepan and boil one minute, stirring constantly. Add the sugar and 3 1/2 cups fruit pulp to the hot pectin. Stir five minutes to completely dissolve sugar. Pour into glasses or freezer containers, cool, and let jell. Put in refrigerator for use in a week or two, or freeze.

To serve the frozen jam, let thaw 30 minutes, then turn out. Refrigerate any unused part. Makes three pints.

New Fabrics Are Deceiving

Informative labeling is a necessity now since the vast array of new fabric types — the synthetics and blends — will deceive the eye of even the experts.

One of the important things to check on these new fabrics is the percentage of the various fibers present.

In order to maintain most of the "ease of Care" qualities of the synthetics such as little or no ironing, quick drying, pleat retention, and wrinkle resistance, it has been found that a certain amount of the synthetic fibers need to be present in the fabric. At the same time, the amount of the natural fibers present is also important in order to obtain their desirable qualities, too. The absorbency of cotton is one example.

A representative of one of the main textile firms reported to the American Home Economics Association meeting in St. Louis recently the following desirable fiber ratios.

At least 35 per cent dacron is desirable when used with rayon, and 50 per cent or more dacron, when it is used with wool. The 65 per cent dacron and 35 per cent cotton has been highly acceptable. The ratio of 80 per cent orlon and 20 per cent wool has proved best for jersey knits, and 45 per cent wool and 55 per cent orlon is most satisfactory for woolen goods, tweeds and flannels.

New Fabrics Are Deceiving

Informative labeling is a necessity now since the vast array of new fabric types — the synthetics and blends — will deceive the eye of even the experts.

One of the important things to check on these new fabrics is the percentage of the various fibers present.

In order to maintain most of the "ease of Care" qualities of the synthetics such as little or no ironing, quick drying, pleat retention, and wrinkle resistance, it has been found that a certain amount of the synthetic fibers need to be present in the fabric. At the same time, the amount of the natural fibers present is also important in order to obtain their desirable qualities, too. The absorbency of cotton is one example.

A representative of one of the main textile firms reported to the American Home Economics Association meeting in St. Louis recently the following desirable fiber ratios.

At least 35 per cent dacron is desirable when used with rayon, and 50 per cent or more dacron, when it is used with wool. The 65 per cent dacron and 35 per cent cotton has been highly acceptable. The ratio of 80 per cent orlon and 20 per cent wool has proved best for jersey knits, and 45 per cent wool and 55 per cent orlon is most satisfactory for woolen goods, tweeds and flannels.

Survey Reveals Too Many Small School Districts

JEFFERSON CITY — Too many and too small.

That summed up the attitude of the Missouri Public Expenditure Survey today on a report based on Census Bureau studies showing the average Missouri school district covers 21.4 square miles — less than half the 56.2 square mile average in the nation.

Missouri school districts were found to average 230.4 pupils compared with 622.8 for the nation as a whole. In 23 states the average is more than 1,000 per district.

And only five states have more than Missouri's 3,233 districts.

"Missouri's multiplicity of small school districts is of more than academic interest," the survey said, "because it is the reason for inefficient tax base and bonding capacity in some districts and is related to school size and efficiency."

The number of Missouri districts has been cut by 1,658 through reorganizations since 1932 and the survey, a taxpayers' organization, called that "commendable progress" but said "much remains to be done."

The census study also showed only three states have more counties than Missouri and only three have more special road, drainage and other districts.

Bribery Trial

Says Hoffa Cooked
Plan to Hurt Senate
Committee's Use

WASHINGTON — A government prosecutor told a federal court jury today James R. Hoffa and Hyman I. Fischbach "cooked up a scheme to subvert and destroy the usefulness of the Senate Rackets Committee."

Asst. U. S. Atty. Edward P. Troxell, opening final arguments to the jury in Hoffa's bribery-conspiracy trial, acknowledged that John Cye Cheasty "deceived" both Hoffa and Fischbach.

Hoffa and Fischbach are accused of bribing Cheasty to get a job with the Senate committee and feed Hoffa confidential data on its operations.

Troxell said that if Cheasty had not pretended to go along, "the scheme cooked up by Hoffa and Fischbach" might have destroyed the committee.

Hoffa has testified that he hired Cheasty to help represent the Midwest Conference of Teamsters which Hoffa heads. Not until his arrest, Hoffa said, did he know that Cheasty worked for the committee.

Troxell said "the evidence is abundantly clear that Hoffa wanted a spy in the committee."

U. S. Dist. Judge Burnita S. Matthews left open the question of whether the case would be submitted to the jury late today or tomorrow. Her decision presumably rested on whether defense and prosecuting attorneys use up all their time. Each side has 2½ hours.

Judge Matthews' instructions to the jury on legal points will follow the closing arguments. She indicated these would require at least an hour.

Hoffa ended his testimony yesterday insisting from the witness stand that he never knew that John Cye Cheasty, New York lawyer-investigator, had a job with the Senate Rackets Committee.

Leasing Ranch Land

ALAMOGORDO, N.M. — John Prather, 82, who has spent the last 60 years on the ranch he built in southern New Mexico, as spurned the latest Army proposals to let him remain on his land.

The Army wants the land for its McGregor Firing Range close to Ft. Bliss, Tex.

The military has offered Prather a life-time lease on his Otter County ranch house and a few acres surrounding the buildings with the provision that the property reverts to the Army upon Prather's death.

Prather told his attorney, J. Benson Newell of Las Cruces:

"You send that paper back and you tell those colonels and generals down there at Ft. Bliss that John Prather isn't giving up his birthright. If they want me off that ranch, they'll have to carry me out in a box, and he told rancher ahead, 'I'll have company when I go.'"

Prather and his neighbors have been given an extension until Aug. 1 before the government takes over their lands for the big missile range.

Jack went over to her Hollywood studio a while back, posed with her, got 50 autographed stills and was in business.

Jack said "I've swapped them for troop patches and neckerchiefs because they're my favorites."

Jack said he had a few pictures left and was ready for a last minute rush.

Tractor Kills Boy

BOONVILLE, Mo. — A farm tractor accident claimed the life yesterday of Dennis Noland, 16, who was found dead beneath the rear wheel of a tractor he was operating on the Wilbur Hein farm near here.

Details of how Noland was killed are not known as he was working alone at the time, loading bails on a tractor drawn wagon.

Noland's body was discovered about 4:30 p.m. yesterday by Morrison Moser, who was baling hay in the same field. Moser said Noland could not have been dead more than about 20 minutes when he discovered the body.

Graham Says
Indifference
Is Problem

NEW YORK — Evangelist Billy Graham says "the greatest problem the church has today... is indifference. People just don't care."

Speaking to another overflow crowd last night at Madison Square Garden, Graham declared:

"They don't realize that every second, that every heartbeat brings them closer to eternity."

Some 700 students were included in the 19,200 persons within the arena. Another 3,000 were unable to enter. Graham delivered a short sermon to them prior to his regular appearance in the arena.

Graham told his arena audience that the Apostle Paul "wouldn't be acceptable" for membership in the average church today because of his record. "He spent most of his time in jail," Graham said, referring to Paul's frequent imprisonment as a result of his preaching.

The evangelist said the world, and particularly New York, has great need for a man of Paul's stature at the present time.

"Oh, would that New York today had men with the passion and burden that Paul had to preach Christ to this city," Graham said.

Total attendance at 58 crusade meetings is 1,076,900 with 33,846 "decisions for Christ." The crusade is scheduled to end Saturday night with a mammoth rally in Yankee Stadium.

The Graham crusade committee meets tomorrow morning to decide whether to extend the crusade for another two or three weeks. A possible indication that the crusade will be extended came yesterday from the American Broadcasting Co. It has been televising some of Graham's recent Saturday appearances in the Garden. It said the network had definitely scheduled a telecast from the Garden for July 27 with the understanding that Graham would appear. There was no confirmation or denial from the Graham crusade team.

The Rev. Martin Luther King, who led the successful Negro bus boycott in Montgomery, Ala., is to appear at tonight's crusade meeting, a Graham team spokesman said.
